- What I am going to write now I would ask you to take some seconds or minutes to think about. Very soon there will come out mind boggling stuff that would even make a Hollywood movie surreal. It will give us a tremendous momentum to clean the game up, from the bottom to the very top. But it will take courage and it will demand standing up against the powers of the game, if it's being the ACBL, the EBL, or the WBF. But don't ever think it's difficult. It's not. It's all about following your heart and doing what's right.
- If the ACBL or EBL don't want to do it themselves, I can do it here on Bridgewinners. Probably a better way of presenting "The Whole Spingold Story."
- The Scandal in Buenos Aires (Reese-Schapiro) is peanuts compared to what's coming out.
- I have sent the information to many bridge players and journalists around the world, so the story won't die anyway. It's for all of us - also the ACBL, EBL and WBF - to do the right thing. For the game we love.
- I guess quite a few would be interested after this intro. I hope that the ACBL, the EBL and the WBF will step up immediately so we can fix a lot of the things that have gotten lost over the years. We have to put the interest of the game on top of the agenda - not the interest of the few.

I respect your passion for and dedication to the game, Boye. I hope you're able to share the story in a public forum sooner rather than later.
